Assessing Dimension Nine: Refining Practice and Sustaining Change

Essential Question: How does the school leader learn from the process so that the work can be refined and sustained?

Key Leadership Practices (Indicators)

Review the leadership practices associated with this dimension that are clear strengths of the school leader. Place a checkmark next to the school leader.

- 9.1 Communicate regularly with the staff and community to celebrate success and highlight areas for growth
- 9.2 Evaluate and revise processes and operations to increase the effectiveness of the system
- 9.3 Engage the staff in data analysis and reflection to refine practices and establish new goals for school improvement and professional growth.
- 9.4 Support continuous improvement by modeling lifelong learning as a school leader and by encouraging and inspiring the staff to enhance their skills
- 9.5 Provide teachers with clear and timely evaluations of their effectiveness based on multiple measures

GENERAL RUBRIC

After you have collected enough evidence, use the rubric to determine the school leader's level of proficiency in this dimension.

- (1) Novice The school leader shows minimal or no commitment to this dimension. Relevant leadership practices are not being applied or are not having their intended effect of improving learning across the organization.
- (2) Developing The school leader has made an initial commitment to this dimension but has not yet fostered a sense of shared commitment among the staff. The school leader applies relevant leadership practices, but the practices need refinement. With refinement, the impact on learning across the organization can be increased.
- (3) Proficient The school leader is committed to this dimension and is building a shared commitment to this dimension among the staff. The school leader applies relevant leadership practices that have a positive impact on learning across the entire organization.
- (4) Expert The school leader is deeply committed to this dimension and has been successful in fostering a strong sense of shared commitment to this dimension among the staff. The school leader applies highly effective leadership practices and is able to adapt them to the needs and demands of students, the staff, and the organization as a whole. These practices have a consistently positive impact on learning across the entire organization.
